

Emperor's New Clothes

Hans Christian Andersen

© Shoko Aoyagi

June 2005

Many years ago there lived an emperor who spent all his money to buy himself the fanciest clothes. One day two men who pretended to be tailors came to town.

They told the emperor they could make him a magical set of clothes that only wise people could see. After the emperor paid the tailors gold coins, they pretended to weave beautiful clothes.

The next day the emperor arranged a parade to show off his new clothes. However, when the emperor looked for his new clothes, he saw nothing at all.

He pretended to see his clothes because he didn't want his royal subjects to think he was a fool. The emperor's subjects also pretended to see the emperor's clothes because they also didn't want to be called fools.

As the emperor walked by in his underwear, a small child spoke up and said what everyone else was thinking, "The emperor has nothing on at all."

Then everyone laughed at the foolish emperor.

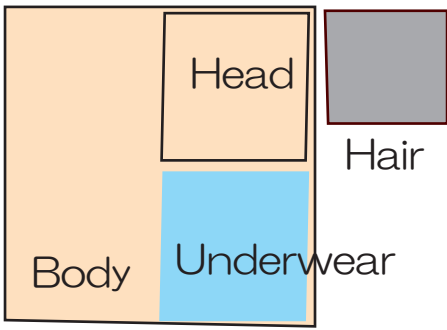

Moral: Only a wise person can see the truth.

A person who is too vain will also be a fool.

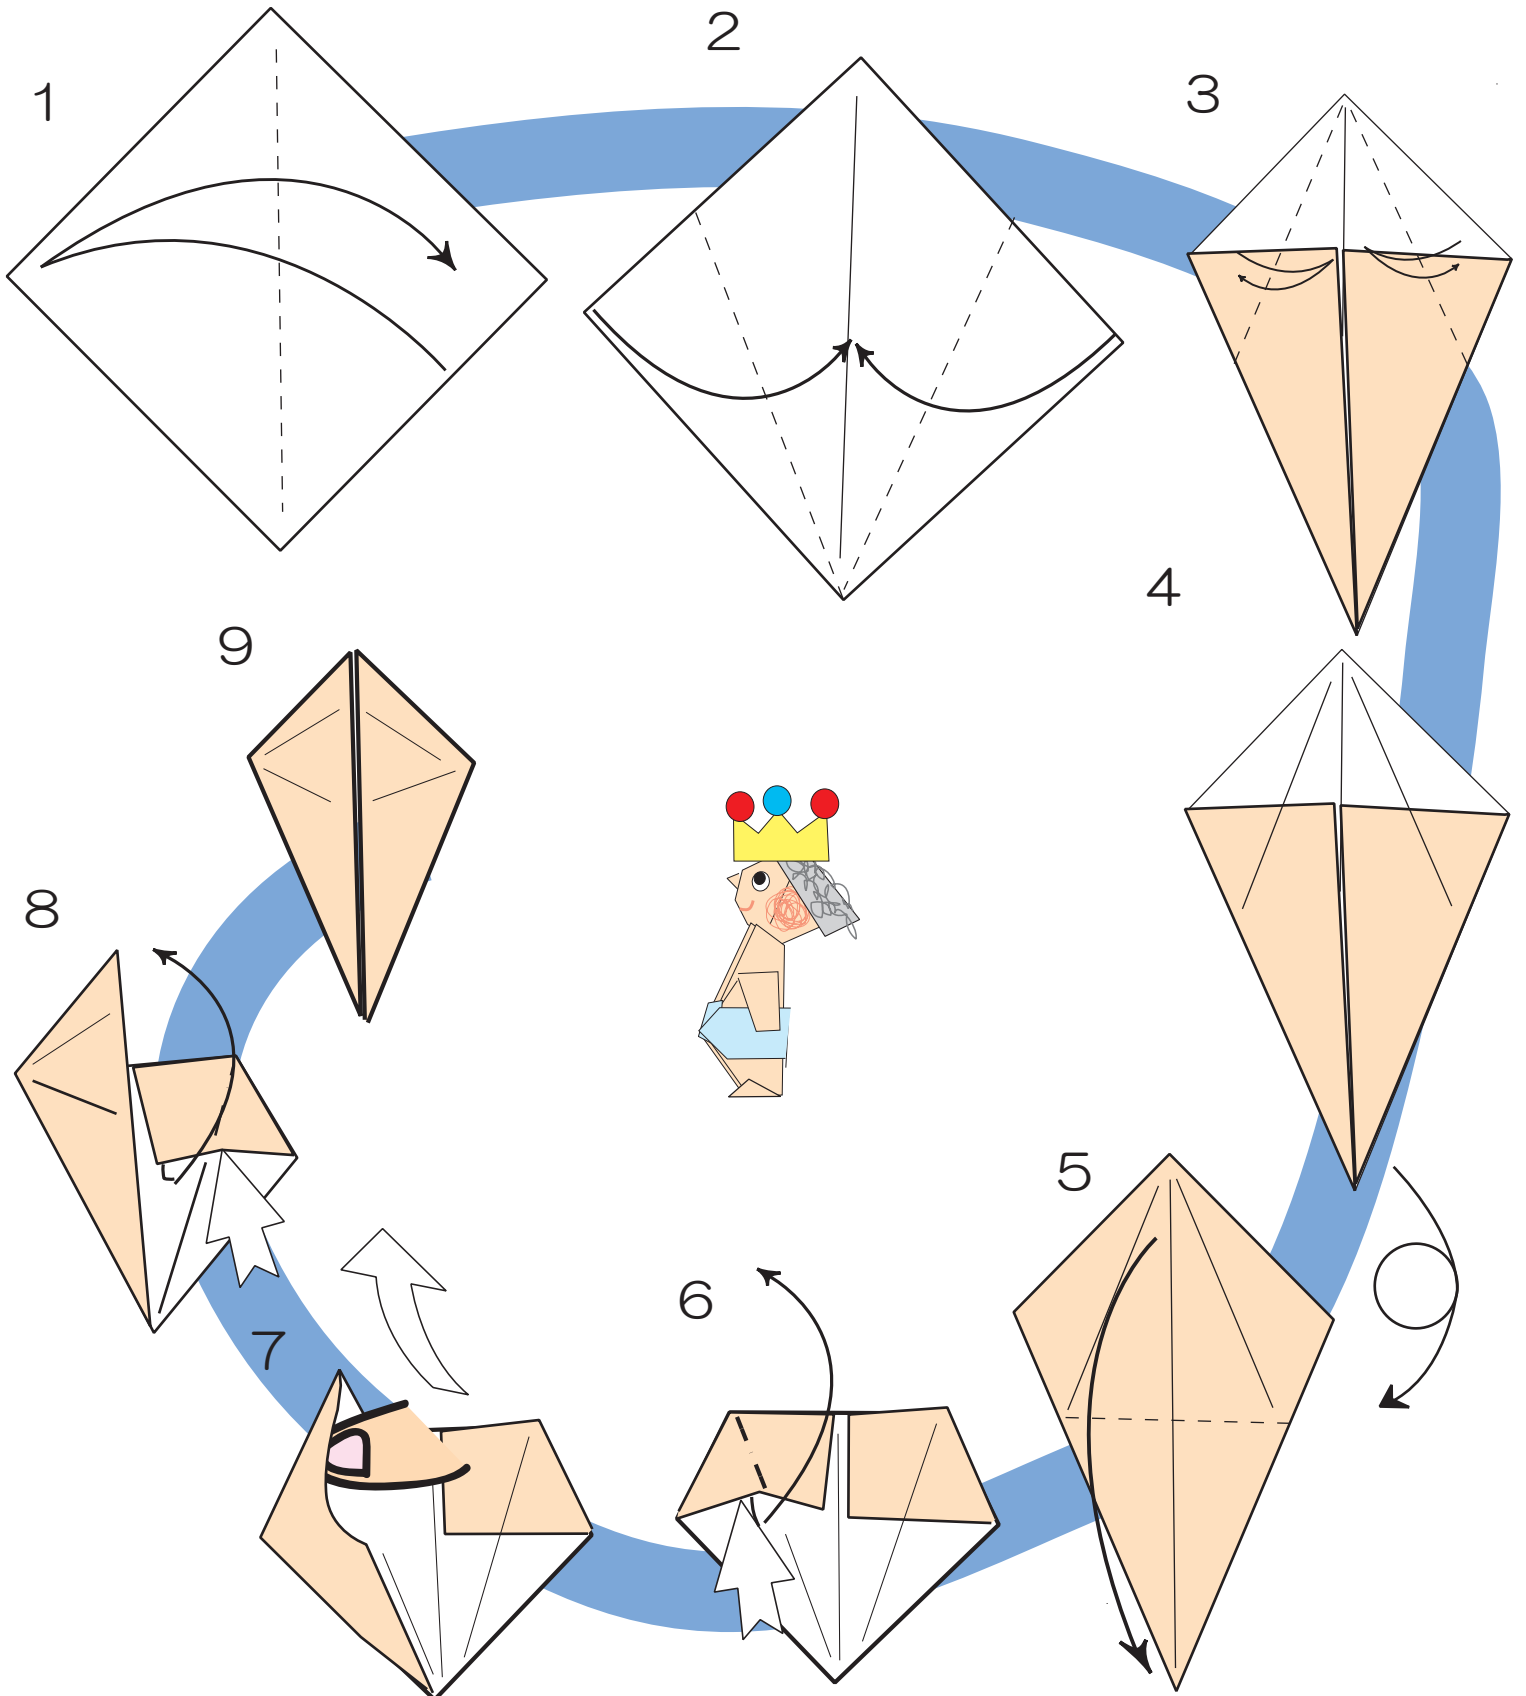

The Emperor's New Clothes

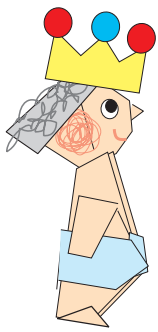

Created by Shoko Aoyagi
Diagram by Shoko Aoyagi

© Shoko Aoyagi June 2005

(Emperor's body)

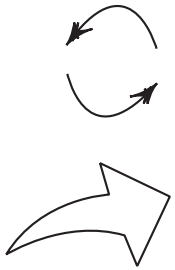

The Emperor's New Clothes

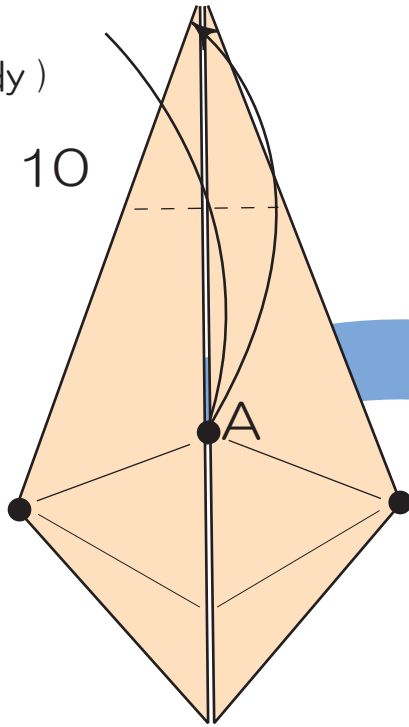

Created by Shoko Aoyagi
Diagram by Shoko Aoyagi

© Shoko Aoyagi June 2005

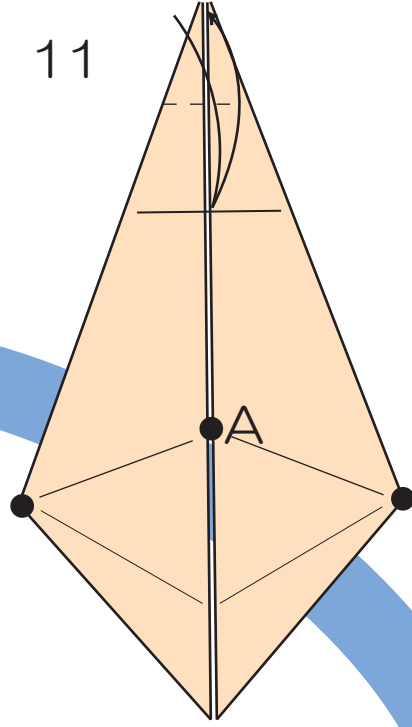

(Emperor's body)

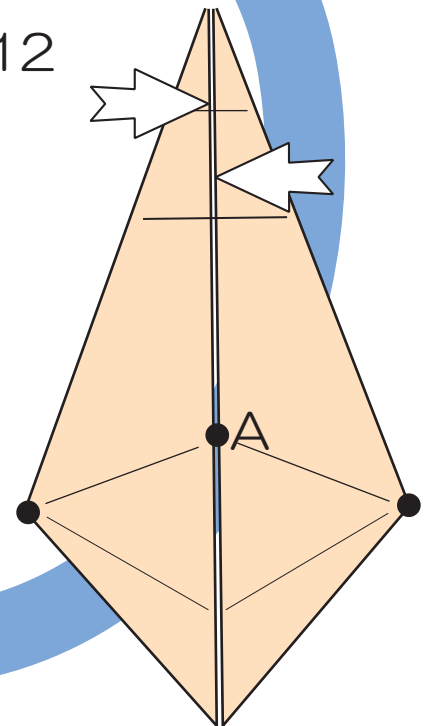

10

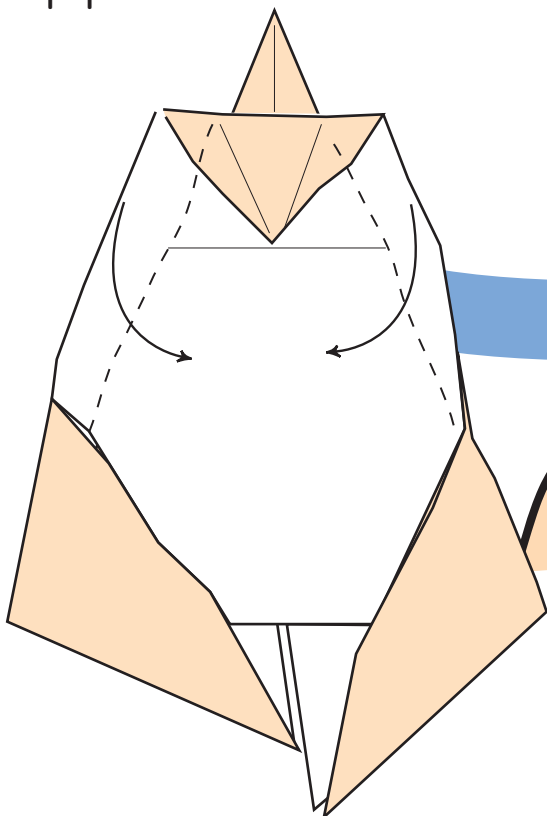

11

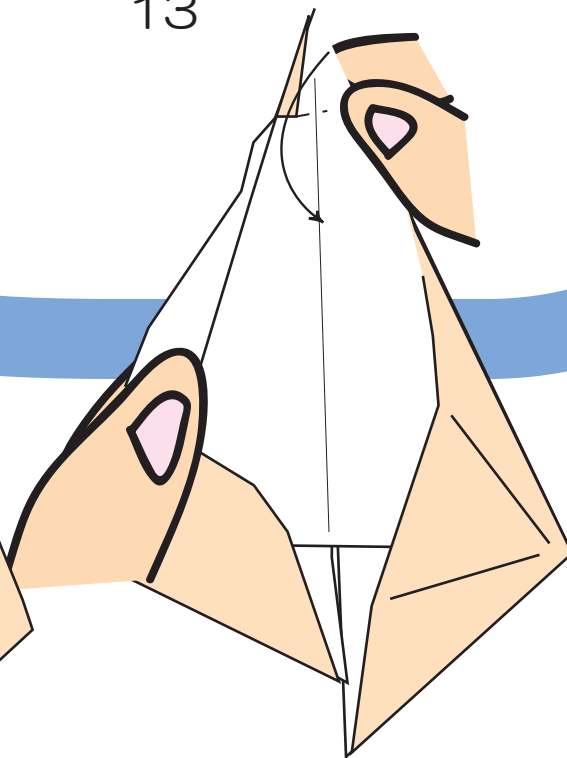

12

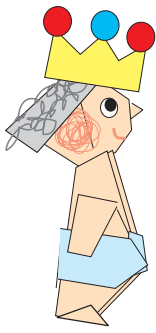

14

13

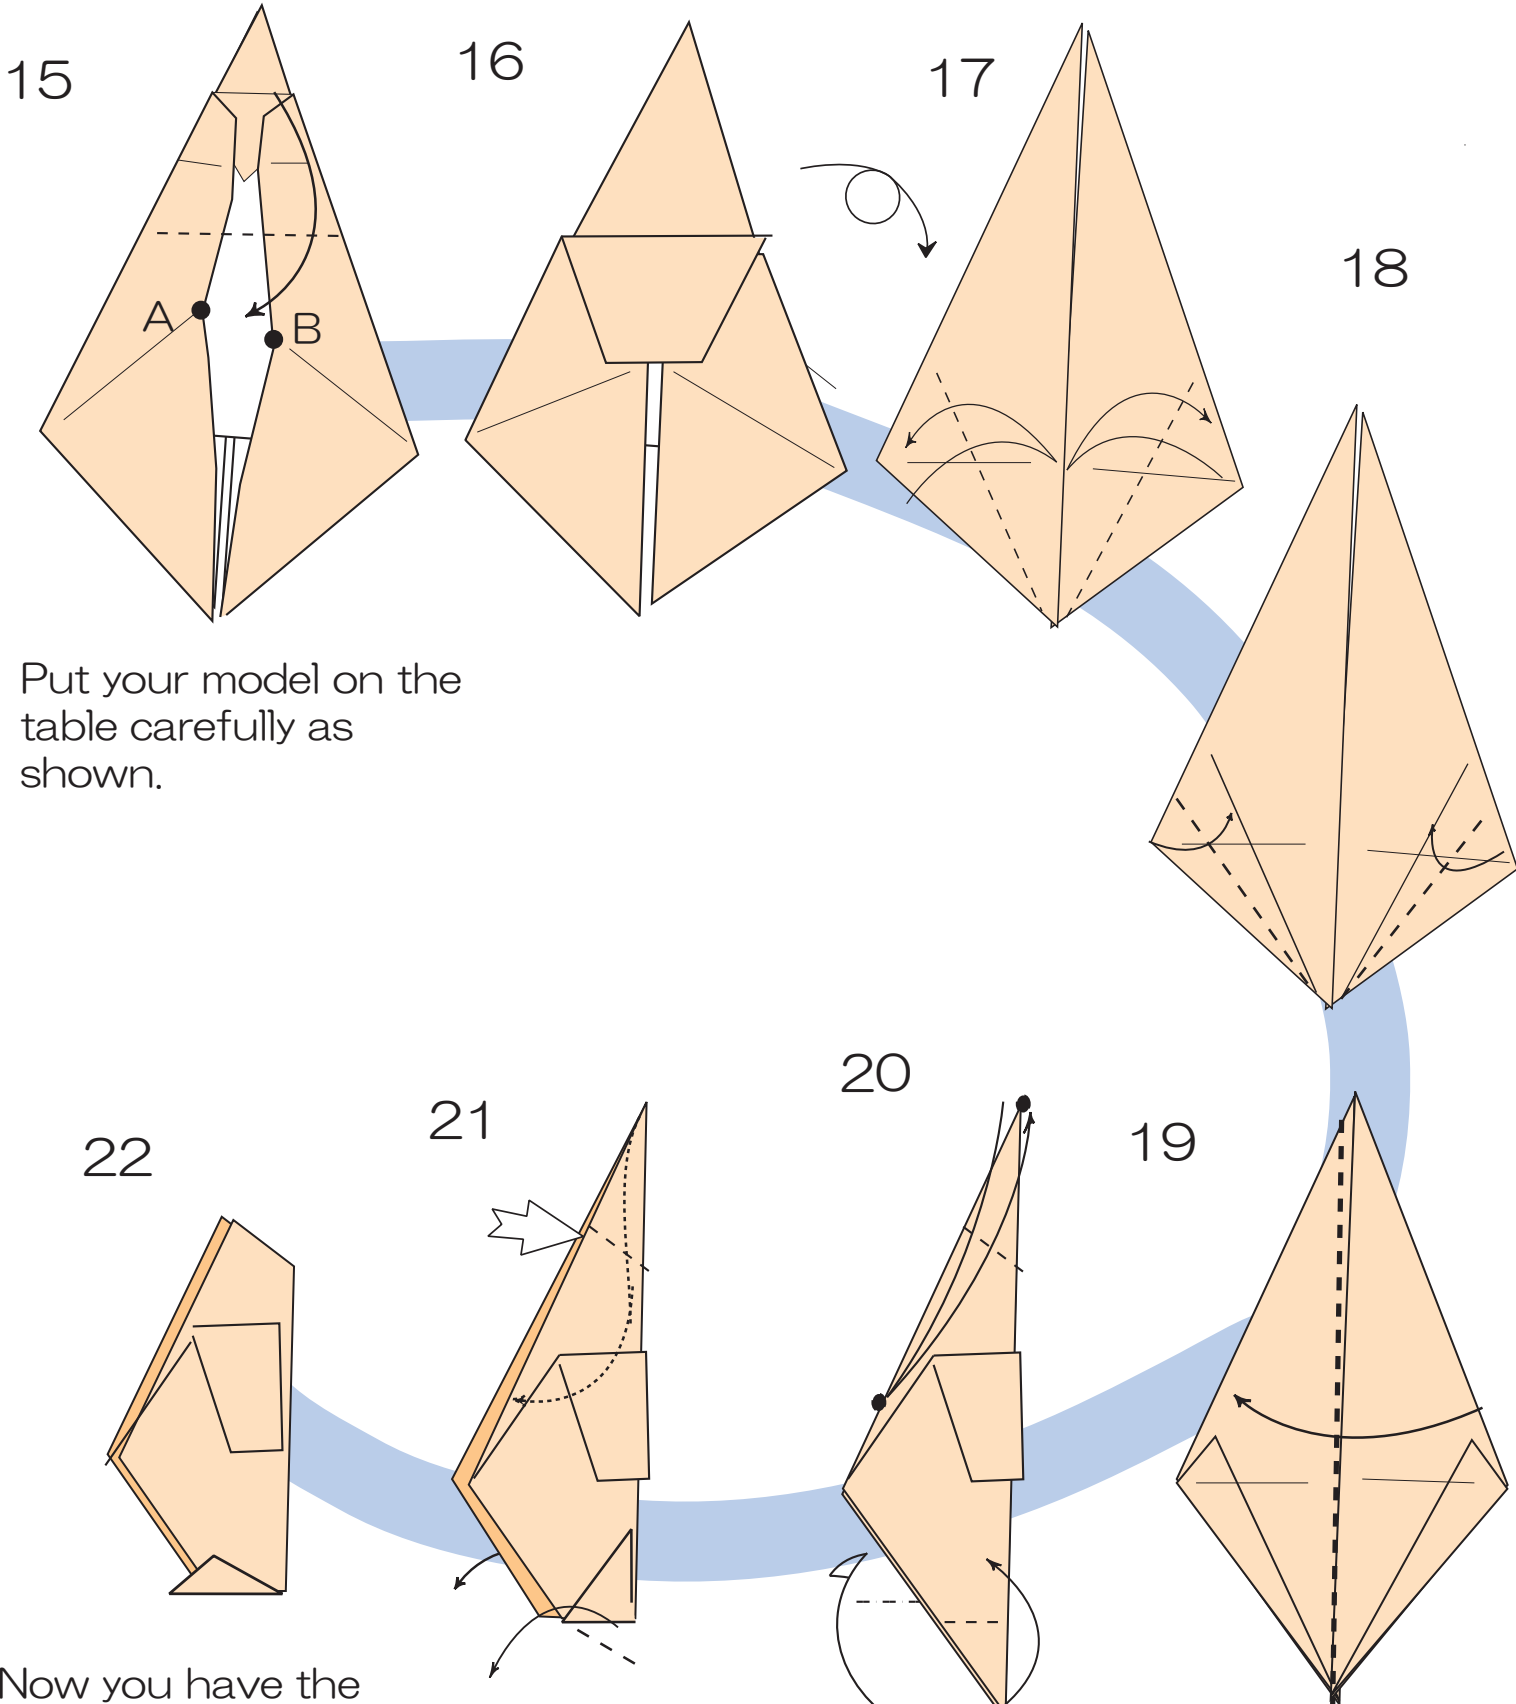

The Emperor's New Clothes

3/6

Created by Shoko Aoyagi
Diagram by Shoko Aoyagi

© Shoko Aoyagi June 2005

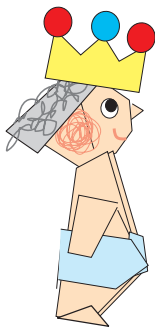

(Emperor's body)

Put your model on the table carefully as shown.

Now you have the body of the Emperor.

Repeat with the other side.

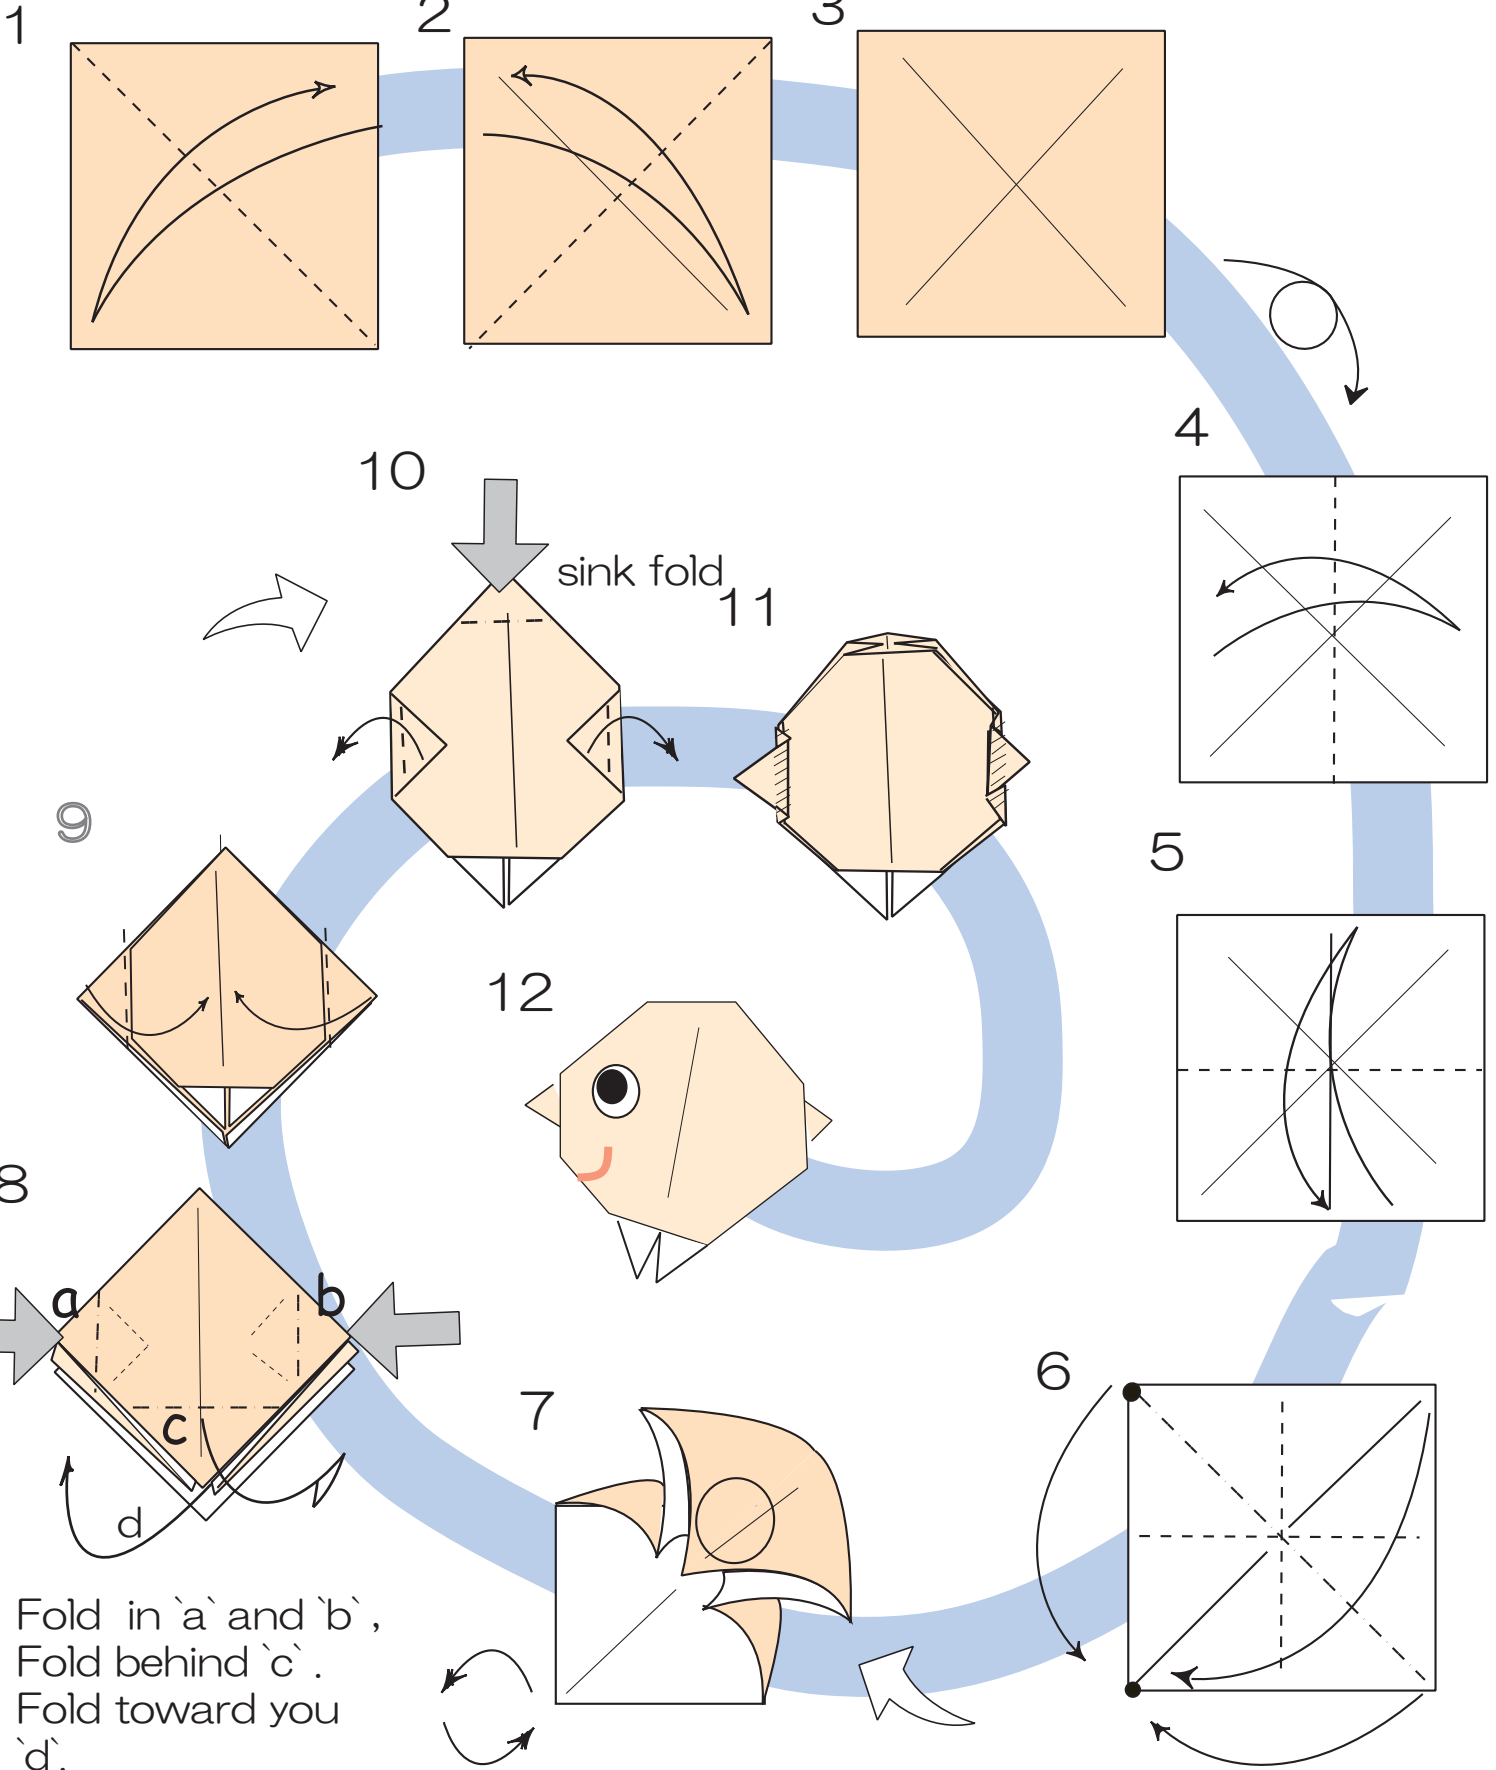

The Emperor's New Clothes

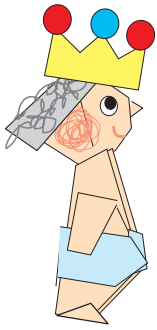

4/6

Created by Shoko Aoyagi
Diagram by Shoko Aoyagi

© Shoko Aoyagi June 2005

(The Emperor's head)

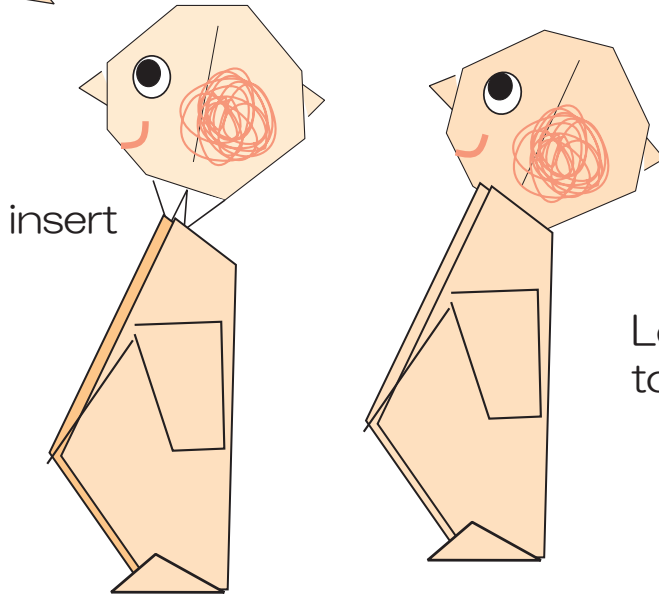

The Emperor's New Clothes

5/6

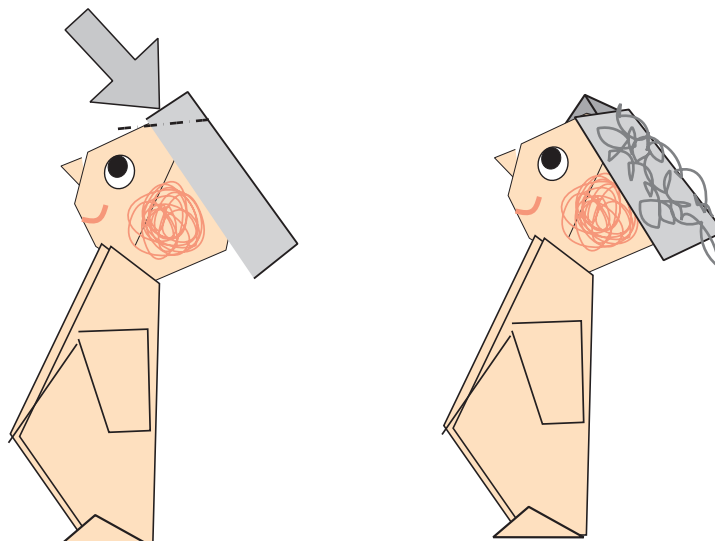

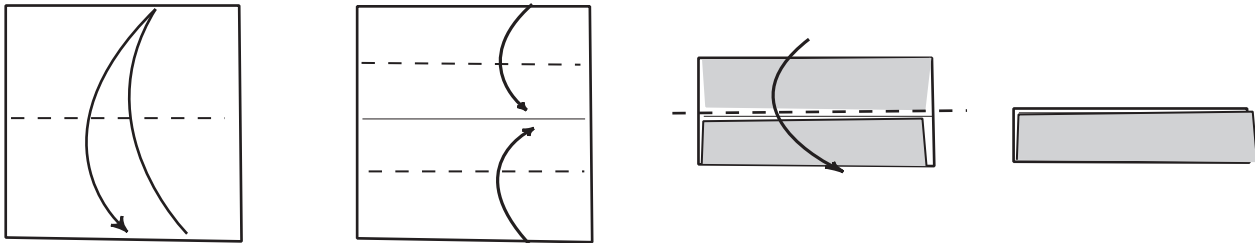

Created by Shoko Aoyagi
Diagram by Shoko Aoyagi

© Shoko Aoyagi June 2005

Let's put the body and the head together with glue.

(The Emperor's hair)

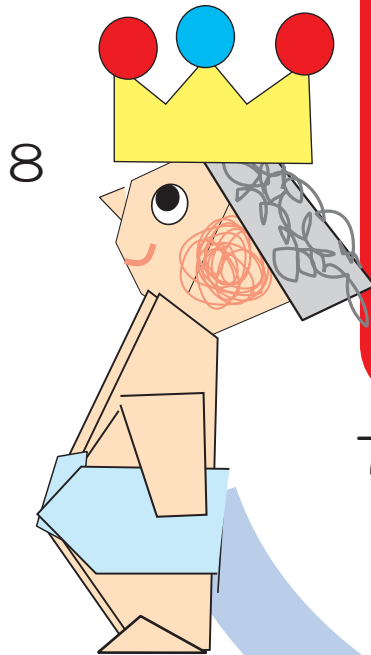

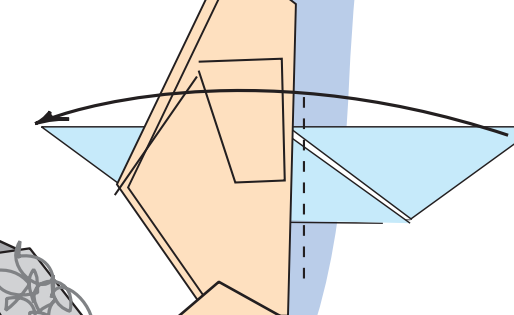

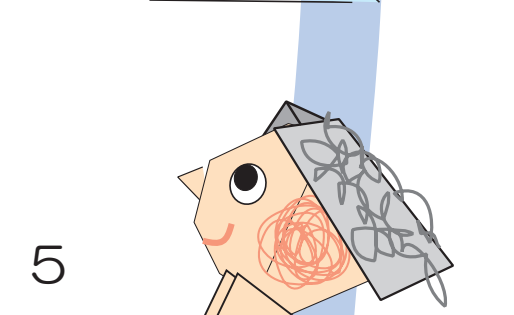

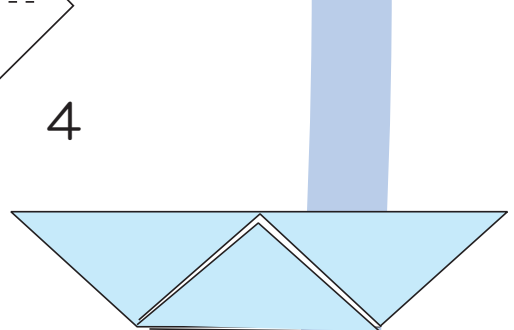

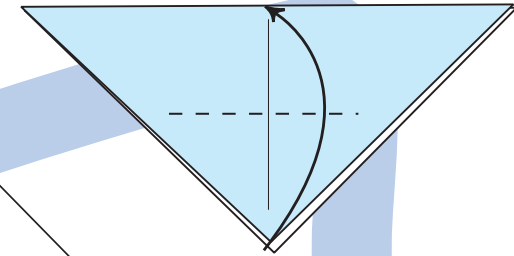

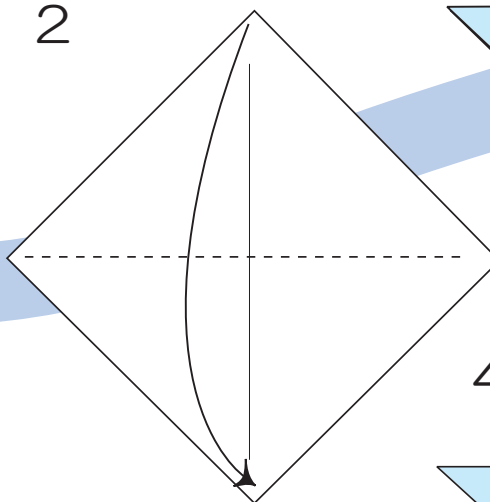

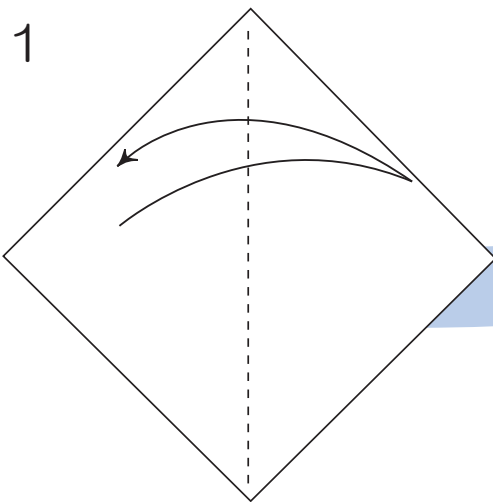

The Emperor's New Clothes

Created by Shoko Aoyagi
Diagram by Shoko Aoyagi
© Shoko Aoyagi June 2005

(Let's make the underwear)

Finish

Wanted !
Enjoy creating your own crown for the Emperor. If you make your origami Emperor with crown, please sent the photo to Shoko via email, shokoorigami@hotmail.com She will be pleased to introduce your work !

Put 'B' under 'A'.

