

"The truth will out."

If Shakespeare were alive today and could watch the latest news he might say, "the truth will out" as he had Lancelot say in The Merchant of Venice.

This quote means that no matter how much you try to hide the truth, people will find out the truth in the end.

Hi! I'm here because I am so popular.

